INTRODUCTORY (Rules 1-2A)

LCR 1 SCOPE OF RULES

Unless specifically designated otherwise, these rules shall govern the local procedure in the Island County Superior Court. These rules are subject to amendment at the direction of the judges. Counsel and litigants should check with the court administrator or county clerk to assure that the rules applicable to their matters are currently in effect. These local rules are supplemental to the Washington State Supreme Court Civil Rules (CR). In all cases where the word “counsel” is used, the provisions shall apply equally to a party appearing without counsel, which party is also known as a “party pro se.”

(a) Service - When Required.

(1) Emergency Orders. A party applying for an emergency order which will require or forbid the doing of some act shall notify the opponent or his or her counsel, if known, and shall request his or her presence at presentation of the order, unless good cause to the contrary is shown. Copies of the motion, declaration, proposed order, and other applicable pleadings and papers shall be provided to the opposing party or his or her counsel, if possible. If the opponent or opponent’s counsel does not appear, the judge shall require a full showing with respect to the notice given.

(2) - (3) (No Local Rules)

(e) Filing With the Court Defined.

(1) Filing with the Clerk. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the court, and not the court administrator’s office or the judge.

(2) Facsimile Filing of Pleadings with Clerk. Documents, including pleadings, may be filed with the clerk by facsimile transmission, in accordance with GR 17, with the following change: In addition to the requirements of a fax transmittal sheet contained in GR 17(b)(2), the fax transmittal sheet shall also contain the title and number of pages for each document sent in the transmission.

(3) Courtesy Copies for Judges. Courtesy copies of pleadings and other papers shall be provided to the court administrator's office for the judge assigned to the case at the same time as such pleadings and other papers are required to be served on the opposing party. Such courtesy copies shall have the words "Judge's Courtesy Copy" in the upper right hand corner of the first page, the judge's name, and the date and time of the hearing. Courtesy copies are discarded after ten (10) days from the assigned hearing date. It is the responsibility of the parties or counsel to provide new courtesy copies to the judge thereafter as provided herein.

(f) - (j) (NO LOCAL RULES)

(k) Special Set Hearings. In the event argument on the motion is expected to be longer than 15 minutes, the moving party shall confer with the opposing counsel or party, and then contact the court administrator's office to obtain a special set hearing date and time that takes into account the opposing party's reasonable conflicts.

(d) For Motions – Affidavits.

(1) Time. Notwithstanding CR 6(d), a written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than twelve (12) days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application as set forth in LCR 6(f). When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion, and, except as otherwise provided in CR 59(c), opposing affidavits may be served no later than 4 p.m. six (6) calendar days prior to the hearing. Reply affidavits in strict reply to the opposing affidavits may be served no later than 4 p.m. four (4) calendar days prior to the hearing. No additional responses or replies shall be permitted from either party without permission of the court. All motions, affidavits and other documents served on opposing party shall be fully conformed as to signatures, dates signed, date filed, and all other information as it appears on the filed original.

provided. Copies of the motion, declaration, proposed order, and other applicable pleadings and papers shall be provided to the opposing party or his or her counsel, if possible. The motion shall contain a written certification that pro se parties or counsel were notified of the time and place when the motion to shorten time is to be heard, or the reasons why such notice was not given. Failure to provide notice may result in terms.

Deposition testimony in connection with a motion shall not require publication unless a challenge is made and opposing party shows good cause for such publication. Depositions used in this fashion shall remain unopened and not a part of the court file unless otherwise ordered by the court.

The court may shorten the time for requesting CourtCall for good cause shown. No calls with a cellular or cordless telephone device or through a personal computer shall be permitted. The party making a CourtCall appearance shall eliminate to the greatest extent possible all ambient noise from the calling location and speak directly into a telephone headset. No private recordings may be made of telephonic appearances.

(C) CourtCall Appearances at Hearing. Parties utilizing CourtCall shall call the court's designated toll free teleconference line approximately five (5) minutes prior to the scheduled time and check-in with the clerk. All persons calling after the check-in period shall be considered to be late for the hearing and shall be treated by the court in the same manner as if the party had personally appeared late for the hearing. Any party appearing by CourtCall shall not utilize the “hold” button, as it is not within the policy of the court to wait for any person to rejoin the line.

“FAILURE TO APPEAR AS SET FORTH ABOVE MAY RESULT IN A TEMPORARY ORDER BEING ENTERED BY THE COURT THAT GRANTS THE RELIEF REQUESTED IN THE MOTION WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE TO YOU.”

(d) Financial Declarations and Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities. Within 30 days after the filing of an answer or other responsive pleading in any of the actions specified in SPR 94.04(a), each party shall serve the opposing party with (1) a Financial Declaration (WPF DRPSCU 01.1550) and all attachments in all cases involving a request for child support, maintenance or attorney fees, and (2) a Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities in the form set out in the Forms Appendix B. (A) Opposing Parties. In no case shall opposing parties be required to attend a seminar together.

(B) Domestic Violence or Abuse. Upon a showing of domestic violence or abuse which would not require mutual decision-making pursuant to RCW 26.09.191, or if the court determines that attendance at a seminar is not in the children's best interest pursuant to Ch. 26.12 RCW, the court shall either waive the requirement of completion of the seminar or allow participation in an alternative parenting seminar if available.

(C) No Contact Order. Where a domestic violence no contact order exists pursuant to RCW 10.99;

(D) Domestic Abuse. Where the court upon motion finds that domestic abuse has occurred between the parties and that such abuse would interfere with arm's-length mediation.

(E) Order to Require Mediation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may by motion seek a court order requiring mandatory mediation in a case where it would not be required if the moving party believes that the parties would be able to mediate their dispute at arm's length under the particular circumstances of the case.

(3) Settlement Conference After Mandatory Mediation. If, after mediation in good faith or where mediation is not required, there remain unresolved issues in any case specified by in SPR 94.04(a), the parties may participate in a settlement conference, pursuant to LCR 16(d).

If a mediator declines to serve, the parties shall select a different mediator, using the same selection process by which the preceding mediator was selected.

(10) Authority of Mediator. The mediator has the authority to determine the time, place, manner, and duration of mediation. In appropriate cases, the mediator shall have the authority to terminate the mediation prior to completion.

(11) Attendance at Mediation. The parties shall personally attend all mediation sessions, unless the mediator permits telephonic or other attendance. The mediator shall have the authority to require other persons to attend.

(12) Declaration of Completion of Mediation. Within seven (7) days of completion of mediation, a declaration that mediation has been completed shall be filed with the court by the mediator. The mediator shall advise counsel and the parties of the results of mediation in writing. The mediator shall advise the court only whether an agreement has been reached on some or all of the issues.

(3) Sanctions/Discipline. The reviewing judge shall have the authority to issue a written admonition or a written reprimand, refer the guardian ad litem to additional training, suspend, remove the guardian ad litem from the registry, or impose other appropriate sanctions. In considering an appropriate form of discipline, the reviewing judge shall take into consideration any prior complaints or grievances that resulted in an admonition, reprimand, referral to training, suspension, removal from the registry, or any other mitigating or aggravating factors.

(4) Finality of Disposition. All resolutions of complaints or grievances shall be final and not subject to further appeal, except removal of a guardian ad litem from the registry. - 1.1 An action has been started in this court that affects your rights. Both parties are now required to obey the following order unless the court changes it. Either of you may ask the court to change or clarify this order. The court has the authority to punish violations of this order and to require the violator to pay attorney fees to the other party for having to bring the violation before the court.
- 1.2 The financial restraints in section 2.1 below and the requirement to fill out the attached "Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities" only apply in actions for (1) dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or marriages declared to be invalid, or (2) non-marital relationships involving distribution of assets and liabilities.

II. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED:

- (b) Both parties are restrained from assigning, transferring, borrowing, lapsing, surrendering or changing entitlement of any insurance policies of either or both parties or of any dependent children, whether medical, health, life or auto insurance, except as agreed in writing by the parties.

COURT'S TEMPORARY
RESTRAINING ORDER-SPR 94.04(b)

- (c) Unless the court orders otherwise, both parties are responsible for their own future debts whether incurred by credit card, loan, security interest or mortgage, except as agreed in writing by the parties.
- (d) Both parties shall have access to all tax, financial, legal, and household records. Reasonable access to records shall not be denied without order of the court.
- (e) Within 30 days after the filing of any general appearance, answer or other responsive pleading, each party shall provide the other party with a completed Financial Declaration (WPF DRPSCU 01.1550) and a Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities (form available at www.islandcounty.net/superiorcourt/forms or see Forms Appendix B herein). Each party shall then file a Declaration of Mailing showing that these documents have been provided to the other party within the time limit. In all cases involving a request for child support, maintenance or attorney fees, the completed Financial Declaration shall also be filed with the court. All parties have a duty to supplement the financial information when additional information becomes available.

- (c) Each parent shall insure that the child(ren) are not exposed to negative comments about the other parent. Neither parent shall make negative comments about the other parent in the presence of the child(ren).
- (d) Within 30 days of filing an appearance, answer or other responsive pleading in this action, both parties shall register for a court-approved parent education seminar. Each party shall attend the seminar within 60 days of registering. COURTROOM DECORUM AND PRACTICE GUIDELINES LCR 77(b)(1)(B)

PREFACE

The pursuit of justice is a serious undertaking and conduct during the litigation process, both within and outside the courtroom, must at all times satisfy the appearance as well as the reality of fairness and equal treatment. Dignity, order and decorum are indispensable to the proper administration of justice.

A trial is an adversary proceeding, and lawyers must advocate for their clients' positions. However, conduct that may be characterized as discriminatory, abusive, or obstructive impedes the fundamental goal of resolving disputes rationally, peacefully and efficiently. Such conduct tends to delay and often to deny justice.

Attorneys are privileged to participate in the administration of justice in a unique way, and are responsible to their own consciences, to their clients, to one another, and to the public to conduct themselves in a manner which will facilitate, and never detract from, the administration of justice.

A trial is a truth-seeking process designed to resolve human and societal problems in a rational and efficient manner. A lawyer's conduct should be characterized at all times by personal courtesy and professional integrity in the fullest sense of those terms. A judge's conduct should be characterized at all times by courtesy, patience, and fairness toward all participants. The courts belong to the people of this state. The guidelines are intended to facilitate access to the courts for the fair resolution of disputes and should never be applied to deny access.

Application

The purpose of these guidelines is to provide lawyers judges, and parties with a reasonable standard of conduct in judicial proceedings. However, these guidelines are not intended to homogenize conduct or remove individuality from the courtroom. To facilitate professional growth and foster voluntary compliance with these guidelines, the WSBA Court Congestion and Improvement Committee periodically review these guidelines. Comments are considered by the committee and changes are incorporated as needed.

All participants in judicial proceedings should voluntarily adhere to these guidelines. These guidelines shall not be used as a basis for litigation or for sanctions or penalties. Nothing in these guidelines supersedes or detracts from existing codes or rules of conduct or discipline or alters existing standards by which lawyer negligence may be determined.

COURTROOM DECORUM

I. General Courtroom Decorum

- A. Always be prompt.
- B. Stand when the judge enters or leaves the courtroom.
- C. Do not make personal attacks on opposing counsel.
- D. Do not interrupt. Wait your turn.
- E. Enhancing courtroom decorum is a cooperative venture among bench and bar. It is appropriate to call to the attention of opposing counsel any perceived violations of these guidelines out of the presence of the jury. After the court has ruled, ask the court's permission before arguing further.
- F. Advise clients and witnesses of the formalities of the court, the appropriate guidelines, and any rulings on motions in limine. Encourage their cooperation. This applies both to attorneys and to pro se parties.
- G. If there is a live microphone at counsel table, remember not to confer with others or rustle papers near the microphone.
- H. Courtrooms equipped for videotaped reporting may require special precautions, such as remaining near a microphone.
- I. Treat everyone in the courtroom with fairness, consideration, and respect. Refrain from conduct that discriminates on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, creed, sex, age, disability, sexual orientation, or marital status.

II. General Trial Conduct

- A. Offers of and requests for stipulations are appropriate to facilitate the presentation of a case, but should not be employed to communicate to the jury a party's willingness or unwillingness to stipulate.
- B. During trial, maintain appropriate respect for witnesses, jurors, and opposing counsel, avoiding informality. Address adults by their titles or surnames unless permission has been given to use first names. Avoid referring to adults by biased and demeaning expression or labels such as "girl," "gal," or "boy." Address jurors individually or by name only during voir dire.
- C. Treat jurors with respect and dignity, avoiding fawning, flattery, or pretended solicitude. Suggestions regarding the comfort or convenience of jurors should generally be made to the court out of the jury's hearing.
- D. During the opening statement and argument of opposing counsel, never inappropriately divert the attention of the court or the jury.
- E. Avoid expressing an opinion to the jury about the testimony of a witness, a ruling of the court, or argument of counsel through exaggerated facial expressions or other contrived conduct.
- F. When practical, give the court advance notice of any legal issue that is likely to be complex, difficult, and which you expect to require argument.
- G. Do not argue the case in the opening statement.

- H. Counsel should not express to the jury personal knowledge or personal opinions about the evidence.
- I. Address your remarks to the court, not to opposing counsel except when extending necessary courtesies, e.g., thank you.
- J. Only attorney, parties, court personnel, and witnesses, when called to the stand, are permitted within the bar of the courtroom, unless otherwise allowed by the court.

III. Examination of Witnesses

- A. When examining a witness, avoid undue repetition of the witness' answer.
- B. Make objections for evidentiary reasons without delivering a speech or guiding a witness. Recapitulate testimony only as needed to put an objection in context.
- C. If a witness was on the stand at a recess or adjournment, have the witness ready to proceed when the court is resumed.
- D. Attempt to anticipate witness scheduling problems and discuss them with opposing counsel and the court. Try to schedule witnesses in advance of trial.

IV. Exhibits and Documents

- A. Premark exhibits with the clerk for identification prior to trial where appropriate. Hand all unmarked exhibits to the clerk for marking before using them in trial.
- B. If practical, have photocopies of an exhibit for the court, opposing counsel, and the witness. Avoid illegible copies if possible.
- C. Return all exhibits to the clerk at each adjournment.
- D. Whenever referring to an exhibit, mention the exhibit number.
- E. Give to the clerk all papers intended for the court.
- F. Show the proposed exhibit to opposing counsel prior to offering the exhibit in evidence.

V. Scheduling

- A. When practical, consult opposing counsel before scheduling hearings and discovery appearances in an effort to avoid scheduling conflicts. Assert a scheduling conflict only if the requested time is not available, not to obtain any unfair advantage.
- B. If opposing counsel fails promptly to accept or reject a time offered for hearing or discovery appearance, raises an unreasonable number of conflicts, or consistently fails to comply with this standard, agreement is not required.
- C. Where time associated with scheduling agreements could cause damage or harm to a client's case, then a lawyer is justified in setting a hearing or discovery appearance without first consulting with opposing counsel.
- D. Give notice of cancellation of appearances and hearings to all involved at the earliest possible time.

VI. Preferences of Individual Judges

Counsel are advised to determine the preferences of individual judges with respect to movement within the courtroom. Following are some examples of individual preferences.

- A. Stand when addressing the court and when making objections.
- B. Stand during opening statement and closing argument.
- C. Approach the bench only with permission.
- D. Maintain an appropriate distance from the witness and the jury.
- E. In the presence of the jury, address the judge as “Your Honor.”

VII. Discovery

- A. Make reasonable efforts to conduct all discovery by agreement. Consider agreeing to an early voluntary exchange of information.
- B. Comply with all reasonable discovery requests in a timely manner.
- C. Stipulate to facts unless there is a genuine dispute.
- D. Conduct yourself in a professional manner and treat other lawyers, the opposing party, and all involved with courtesy and civility at all times. Clients should be counseled that civility and courtesy are required.
- E. Be punctual in fulfilling all professional commitments and in communicating with the court and other lawyers.
- F. Concentrate discovery responses on matters of substances and content, avoiding quarrels over form or style.
- G. Clearly identify for other counsel or parties all changes made in documents submitted for review.
- H. Fully respond to discovery, unless making a specific and clear objection warranted by existing law or a reasonable extension thereof. Do not produce documents in a manner designed to hide or obscure the existence of particular documents.

VIII. Depositions

- A. Advise clients regarding appropriate behavior, attire and other matters involved with depositions and other proceedings.
- B. Take depositions only when actually needed to ascertain facts or information or to perpetuate testimony.
- C. Make only good-faith objections to discovery, and avoid objections solely for the purpose of withholding or delaying the disclosure of relevant information.
